

Welcome to Feline Focus!

Welcome to Feline Focus, the new weekly column by Furever Friends Cat Rescue. We are a nonprofit organization based in Altona. We operate with volunteers, donations, and support from our community. Our mission is to rescue the lost, abandoned, and homeless cats in our community. We are dedicated to the care and wellbeing of our local feral cat population and to help educate the public on the need to spay/neuter pets, the prevention of animal cruelty, and the importance of responsible pet ownership.

We are grateful for this opportunity and look forward to using this column in a number of ways: featuring cats that are available for adoption, sharing stories of cats that have already passed through our rescue (happy ones and sad ones, because those happen too), announcing fundraising events, and providing educational content. Let's begin!

Meet Arturo - Available for Adoption

Hi, my name is Arturo. You can call me Art, as I'm a one-of-a-kind masterpiece. My contrasting stripes look like they were painted with the thick brushstrokes of Van Gogh, my strong form sculpted by Michelangelo, and flowing graceful movement designed by Raphael himself. I'll be the first to admit that I have a few flaws. A dog bit me on the tail and I have a hole. Yes, a hole! When it's healed, you probably won't notice the small scar that'll be left from that extremely undignified chase around the block.

Furever Friends Cat Rescue also thought to alter my sublime perfection with a little surgery. They brought me to the vet for a neuter. It's my opinion that they have no artistic eye at all. They should try something like play-dough or colouring books the next time, because that was definitely not body sculpting. I must say that the veterinarians are really good in tattoo design because I do like the artistic ear stamp they gave me.

Some might say my boastfulness about my appearance is also a flaw, but I'm actually known to be a very friendly cat, a total sweetheart. Definitely a lover and not a fighter, preferring a snuggle and couch cuddles. If you want me to stop going on about my good looks, just pet me, my purr is endless! If you want to meet me and see for yourself how incredible I am, just contact Furever Friends Cat Rescue.

Arturo is a male, shorthaired, grey striped tabby. Birthday: October 7, 2019. He's got personality and good looks! Fully vetted. For more information, please contact us: call/text 204-304-9173; email furever_friends@icloud.com; visit our website www.fureverfriendsaltona.com, or find us on Facebook.