

Linden says this is a great way to win a prize

Furever Friends Cat Rescue is a nonprofit organization based in Altona. We operate with volunteers, donations, and support from our community. Our mission is to rescue the lost, abandoned, and homeless cats in our community. We are dedicated to the care and wellbeing of our local feral cat population and to help educate the public on the need to spay/neuter pets, the prevention of animal cruelty, and the importance of responsible pet ownership.

We are grateful for this opportunity to use this column in a number of ways: featuring cats that are available for adoption, sharing stories of cats that have already passed through our rescue (happy ones and sad ones, because those happen too), announcing fundraising events, and providing educational content.

Hi! My name is Linden. I'm a cute little kitten looking for my furever home. Everyone thinks that little kittens like me get adopted fast, but often we don't and we end up growing up in foster homes.

Let me tell you about myself, so you'll choose me to add to your family. Obviously, I'm completely adorable! So good looking with my long, blonde hair. I'm good buddies with my brother Oakley, and we loooove to play! I loooove to nap, too. Play hard, sleep hard is my motto! My foster mom says I'm a sweet, reserved, and quiet kitten. Sometimes I'm a bit shy, but she says that's okay because I'm the best at snuggles.

When I grow up, I want to be an exterminator because I'm really good at hunting! This morning I caught a mouse and guess where I put it...nope, not the laundry room. Nope, not the cbasement. Here's a hint...it rhymes will millow! Maybe you can adopt me, and I can hunt toy mice in your house. Not real ones, hyuck! Did you really think I'd put a real mouse on my foster mom's pillow!?!? No way! I'm not touching anything that disgusting. I'm a house cat!

I grew up inside and I don't have any worms or ear mites. No parasites for me, I wasn't born on a farm! I'm very healthy, I don't have goopy kitten eyes or an upper respiratory infection like those "free" kittens. Furever Friends takes care of all of that stuff, including my neuter - which is already done, so I won't do anything gross like mark up your house with pee. That's totally disgusting! But, all of that vet care isn't free. Sooo, did you know that if you donate towards my care, or any of the cats at Furever Friends Cat Rescue, you'll be entered to win a prize?

Outland Health & Fitness has donated a prize (worth as much as my adoption fee) for the month of August! It includes a grey unisex t-shirt (size medium), two 30-minute personal training sessions and a weather-proof sticker.

Outland Health & Fitness in Altona is a coached fitness facility that offers personal training, group classes, nutrition coaching, kids classes and gymnastics. With restrictions lifted, they are fully open and excited to help anyone on their health and fitness journey. Visit their website at www.outland-fitness.com. No donation is too small, and all are greatly appreciated. Donations may be made by eTransfer to furever_friends@icloud.com, cash or cheque. Prize draw date is Sept. 1.

Hopefully I'll have a home by the end of August, too!

Linden is a blonde, longhaired male. His birthday is May 30, 2021. He is fully vetted and is a sweet, snuggly kitten. Linden is from our Wood litter and is available for adoption, as are his siblings Oakley and Teak. For more information, please contact us.
